

Exercises for Lesson 81: Double Object Pronouns

The following exercises will help you to practice using object pronouns and double object pronouns in Italian. For more information, check out Lesson 81.

I've included a chart which you can use when doing the exercises:

	direct objects	lo	la	li	le	ne
indirect objects	mi	me lo	me la	me li	me le	me ne
ti	te lo	te la	te li	te le	te ne
gli	glielo	gliela	glieli	gliele	gliene
le	glielo	gliela	glieli	gliele	gliene
Li	glielo	gliela	glieli	gliele	gliene
ci	ce lo	ce la	ce li	ce le	ce ne
vi	ve lo	ve la	ve li	ve le	ve ne
Ioro/Loro	Io...loro	la...loro	li...loro	le...loro	ne...loro

PART A

In the sentences below, re-write them by replacing the direct and/or indirect objects with pronouns (Note: Not all of the sentences below require double object pronouns):

1. Maria ha comprata una camicia blu per Giovanna.

2. Comprerò la nuova giacca che ho visto ieri.

3. Dice a Luisa che non vuole andare alla festa.

4. Ho scritto una lettera a Marco perché volevo sapere la data del suo arrivo.

5. Dove hai messo le chiavi?

6. Devi dare a Monica il tuo biglietto.

7. Volevo chiedere ai miei cugini dove vanno.

8. La professoressa insegna italiano agli studenti.

9. Ho dato tanti regali a mia moglie.

10. Da' a tua sorella una caramella!

11. Hai detto delle bugie orribili ai cugini ed adesso non puoi uscire!

PART B

Below are two sentences. Translate sentence A into Italian. Then re-write sentence A, replacing the direct and indirect objects with pronouns:

1a. My mother gave us two sandwiches.

1b. My mother gave us two of them.

2a. John is phoning his friends because he is ready to go out now.

2b. John is phone them because he is ready to go out now.

3a. Dad was buying Gianna a new purse for Christmas.

3b. Dad was buying her a new one for Christmas.

4a. John asks me for money all the time. I don't like it.

4b. John asks me for it all the time. I don't like it.

5a. My nephews bother my daughter when they visit us.

5b. My nephews bother her when they visit us.
